CONTINUING EDUCATION

Selected Independent Funeral Homes has sought accreditation for continuing education for attendance at this NextGen Seminar from the Academy of Professional Funeral Service and states that have continuing education requirements. The Academy has approved the meeting for 8.0 contact hours, which equals 0.8 CE Units in Category A (provider #1024; event #13-5375).

Participants need to be aware that credit and session approvals vary by state. Selected cannot guarantee approval will be granted by states. Refer to information posted for current approvals and/or visit Selected's website at www.selectedfuneralhomes.org/continuing-education-credit.

For your convenience, this form is provided to record your credit and help facilitate communication of your meeting attendance to those groups interested in your participation. It is your responsibility to obtain signatures verifying your attendance at applicable sessions and to retain this information in your files. It is your responsibility to confirm that the session(s) has (have) been approved by your state and/or that your state offers CE credit for individual sessions. This form is not intended to replace those that may be required by your state. It also is your responsibility to sign the attendance sheets provided on-site at the meeting in order for Selected to have proof of your attendance at this meeting and to provide verification of your attendance.
